ABOUT ROGER FLEMING

Roger Fleming, the first full-time faculty member called to Wisconsin Lutheran College on August 1, 1977, served as the head men's golf coach at WLC for 30 seasons before being called to his eternal home on October 2, 2008.

Throughout his service to WLC, Fleming functioned as admissions director, financial aid director, registrar, athletics director, and coached softball, baseball, and tennis. He also taught theology and physical education classes in addition to Greek language courses.
